This weekend, as another school year ends, St Joseph's Parish, church and school, celebrate 32 years of loyal service, faithful witness, dedication and devotion on the part of Breedge Saynor as she brings to a close a chapter of her life spent teaching in our parish school.

Breedge has responded to God's call to give of her best in sharing her faith in God by teaching the children of this parish and many of their parents before them. We pray that God will reward what she has done so far and open new doors for her in the future.

Congratulations, Breedge, and God bless all you turn your hand to.
